Dear People of Annunciation,

Jesus had it right when he spoke many times about people's money as their treasure: "For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also" (Matthew 6:21). Our wallet and checkbook are precious to us, whether we have little or much. And we protect and worry about what we have, whether it is little or much.

There is a story about a group of Viking warriors who were ordered by their king to join him when he converted to the Christian Faith through the waters of baptism. As they waded out into the nearby river to be baptized, they all went under the water while holding one of their arms high above their heads. If they had been asked why they were doing this, the warriors would have answered that they did not want the arm and hand that bore the sword to go under the water, for they had been taught that whatever goes under the water belongs to God. And these warriors were willing to let the rest of their bodies –and thus their lives—belong to God, but their sword-arms would be held back. Those Vikings may not have cared one way or another about the new religion that their king had embraced with them in tow, but they did know that they were not about to give control over the most important part of their life to this new God. One part was definitely not going under the water!

I was in my mid-thirties when, after attending a Cursillo weekend, I began to know in my heart and mind that I wanted to get more involved in the life and ministry of St. Nathaniel's Episcopal Church. I attended regularly but was not giving much of my time, or money, for the work of the church. After hosting a dinner in my home for the Stewardship Campaign and listening to our priest talk about the importance of tithing, I decided I would begin to tithe a percentage of my income to the church. My goal was to give 10% or more of my money, time, and talent, and for the most part, I have achieved that goal for 30 years now. When asked if I ever needed or missed that money, I tell people that I have never needed or missed the money I have given. It has actually been extremely liberating to live my life rich toward God...to let my whole body go under the water.

At the 8:00 am service, the Offertory sentence we say is one of the key passages about stewardship and one that has informed my faith journey for many years. A song of David "All things come from you, O God, and of your own have we given you." I truly believe that when we realize that everything we have is a gift from God, we are not afraid to accept the challenge to stretch and grow into our individual purpose, and into the mission of the church. I ask you to consider how God is calling you to risk "flavoring" the world with your time, talents and treasure. Are you willing to risk it all and let your whole body go under the water for God? Jesus was right... "For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also" (Matthew 6:21).

With the Love of Christ,

Denise+

ECW Yard Sale & Youth Service Project

Our Episcopal Church Women (ECW) group uses the proceeds from our rummage sale to help meet the needs of our community throughout the year-and without your help it will not happen!

Saturday, November 2, at 9:00 am. All youth are invited to participate in painting the outside base around the church. If we finish and have enough time, we will also re-seal the picnic tables in the church playground.

All Saints Sunday Necrology

Sunday, November 3, the Names of family members or friends who have died this past year will be remembered in the service. Please call or email Karen in the office the names of those you wish to have remembered.

United Thank Offering

Filled boxes will be collected Sunday, November 3.

How to live a life of gratitude for daily blessings? It is unbelievably easy! Just breathe a quiet prayer of "Thank you, God!" as good things come to you throughout your day. To make it even more special, share that goodness with others and drop a coin or bill in your United Thank Offering Blue Box. It may become part of a grant for a van to carry someone to a clinic for medical care, or to a church in a faraway place with no transportation, or even a motorbike to make it possible for a priest or deacon to make rounds for services in a jungle or desert somewhere. Amazing things happen when we share the love of Jesus!

Please welcome to our community...

Tom, Betty Jo Sadler and their service dog Midia.
