Dear People of Annunciation,

The 198 Convention of the Diocese of Georgia turned out to be pretty exciting. The Rev. Canon Frank Logue was elected on the first ballot to become the 11th Bishop to lead the Episcopal Diocese of Georgia. "I am grateful, Bishop-elect Logue said, to be called by God through this election to lead this part of the body of Christ which consistently puts Jesus at the center." "We have many great partnerships with other denominations, and I look forward to deepening our relationships and strengthening the bonds that unite us in Christ."

His consecration service will be held at 11 AM, Saturday, May 30th at the Johnny Mercer Theater in Savannah. The Presiding Bishop, Michael Curry, will officiate; he will also preach at a Eucharist to be held at 11 AM Sunday, May 31st, in Forsyth Park, Savannah. All are invited to attend! Blessings, Denise+

Brief Bio of the Bishop-elect Frank Logue

Born in Montgomery, Alabama, where I lived for 6 years, I grew up in Marietta, Georgia. A 1984 graduate of Georgia Southern University, I worked as a photographer for two small daily newspapers in Georgia—the Warner Robins Daily Sun and the Rome News-Tribune. I married Victoria Steele in 1985. Victoria and I hiked the entire 2,150-mile Appalachian Trail in a single six-month long hike in 1988. Three years later, after working as an Art Director for a non-profit, we went full-time as freelance writer-photographers, writing books, and magazine articles. Our daughter, Mary Griffin Logue, born in 1991 added great joy and wonder to our lives. In 1995, I responded to a long felt call to the ministry. I entered Virginia Theological Seminary in the fall of 1997. While there, I worked as a seminarian at two area churches, including assisting with the creation of a new Episcopal church—Church of the Spirit in Alexandria, Virginia. I also took part in summer internships with the Anglican Church in Tanzania and St. Elizabeth's Hospital, a large mental hospital in Washington, D.C. In 2000, Victoria, Griffin, and I moved to Camden County, spending 10 years starting King of Peace Episcopal Church and its preschool. Since 2010, I have assisted Bishop Benhase in overseeing the clergy and congregations of the Diocese of Georgia. All three of us have been actively involved in the Episcopal Diocese of Georgia. Victoria served two 3-year terms on Diocesan Council and as a Deputy to the 2012 General Convention. Victoria and I have led spirituality retreats in the Diocese of Georgia since 2007. Griffin served on the Diocesan Youth Commission and was involved in many diocesan youth programs and campus ministry at Armstrong State University. Griffin now lives in Phoenix, Arizona, where she has just started a four year program toward a Doctorate in Veterinary Medicine at Midwestern University. Victoria and I just completed a Lent devotional that Forward Movement will offer for Lent 2020.

The Season of Advent

When you walk into church this Sunday on December 1, you will notice the altar linens are no longer the green of much of the summer and fall, they are now blue. In the left corner of the nave, is a large wreath with four candles among the greenery, and before the service begins a candle (s) will be lit to symbolize one of the themes of Advent: the light that shines in the darkness. The light of Christ comes into a world that is often broken and dark.

The word “Advent” derives from the Latin Adventus, which means “coming.” Referring to both the “first coming” of Jesus Christ in his birth at Christmas, and to his “second coming” at the end of time. The scripture readings for the season of Advent in liturgical year A, will focus on the birth of Christ and the “second coming” of Christ, with the gospel of Matthew as our guide. Matthew will help us get ready for Jesus to be born and ready for Jesus to come back. So let us begin this new church with expectation! “The King shall come!” “Rejoice!”

Advent Wreath Kit

On the First Sunday of Advent, December 1, Advent Wreath kits, with everything needed to make an Advent Wreath, will be available to take home. Advent prayers and readings will be included for your personal and family devotions during the four weeks of Advent. If you have greenery from your yard that you could use for your wreath or could share with others, please let Rev. Denise know.

ECW Angel Tree

ECW is again sponsoring the Angel Tree this Christmas season. Look for the Angel Tree on the First Sunday of Advent, December 1st, filled with Christmas wishes for children and families assigned to us by the local Salvation Army, located in the narthex. Take one or more “angels” to help with this Christmas outreach project; write your name and family letter from ornament on the sign-up sheet; and return ornament(s) with wrapped gift(s) by Sunday, December 15. Thank you.

Christmas Flowers and Decorations

The Flower Guild will soon be purchasing Christmas Flowers and decorations for the altar, windows, and poinsettias. If you have a loved one you wish to remember, please complete the order form in the Sunday bulletin and return it to the Church office, or you may place it in the offertory plate.

Please make checks payable to Annunciation, earmarked “Flower Guild Christmas Flowers”. Flowers are $25 each, but any amount may be given to help offset the Flower Guild expenses. Our thanks to each of you!

Advent Bible Study 'A Thrill of Hope'

Wednesday, December 4, 6:00 pm continues December 11 & 18

A Thrill of Hope presents the familiar story of Christmas as told in the Gospels of Matthew and Luke. Each scripture passage is illustrated and interpreted in the stunning artwork of John August Swanson along with commentary by some of America's premier Biblical scholars, names such as Dr. Thomas G. Long, Dr. Michael Joseph Brown, Dr. Carol A. Newsom, and more. The study is divided into six 7-minute chapters, each one featuring a passage of Scripture, commentary by the scholars, and a Swanson work of art based on that passage. Included are A Visit (Luke 1:26-38), The Nativity (Luke 2:1-7), The Shepherds (Luke 2:8-20), Epiphany (Matthew 2:1-12), Presentation in the Temple (Luke 2:21-40), and Flight into Egypt (Matthew 2:13-15). Books are located in the Narthex with a sign-up sheet. Price is $5.00.

Stewardship Appreciation Luncheon

Sunday, December 8, 12:00 noon in the Parish Hall, lunch will be provided in thanksgiving for the time, talent, and treasure you have given to support the mission and ministry of our church. Everyone is invited.

Cookie Walk and Bake Sale

Sunday, December 15, after the 10:30 service to benefit Youth to Camp. Cookies and baked goods needed.

If you would like to participate in the Cookie Walk and Bake Sale, please make two dozen or more of your favorite Christmas Cookie's (or other baked goods) and bring them to the church office in an air tight labeled container by Thursday, December 12, or bring them on Sunday, December 15 ready to swap.
