"Wait for the Lord; be strong, and let your heart take courage; wait for the Lord!"

Psalms 27:14

Dear People of Annunciation,

When you walk into the church on the First Sunday of Advent which begins November 28, you will notice some changes. The altar linens will be blue, rather than the green of much of the past five months. The Advent wreath with three blue candles and one rose will be placed under the cross, and before the service begins, on each of the four Sunday's before Christmas, a candle(s) will be lit. The word "Advent" comes from the Latin Adventus, which means "coming." The season is one of preparation for Christ's coming to Bethlehem at Christmas and his coming in glory at the end of time, to which we wait and look forward. The scripture readings will focus on those who played important roles in the preparation for Christ's coming. The major theme is expectation, not penitence in this time of waiting....

Our Advent Study titled: 'Wait upon the Lord' looks back at those who waited upon the Lord for his promises to come to pass and asks us to contemplate how we should wait upon the Lord in this present moment in our lives as God makes himself known to us in his time.

Introduction to this year's Advent Study 'Wait Upon the Lord.'

"The season of Advent, the four weeks before Christmas, is a time of waiting. Children may find it especially difficult to wait with patience. Adults may not be quite so excited, since they may be busier than usual with cleaning, cooking, shopping and decorating, but they may eagerly await the arrival of family members and other guests who will be arriving to celebrate Christmas. For all who trust in Christ Jesus, the Advent season is a time of waiting. Abraham and Sarah waited with trust in the God who keeps his promises. Zechariah and Elizabeth waited for the birth of their son John, who would announce the coming of the Savior. Mary and Joseph waited in wonder for the birth of the promised Messiah, Jesus—the Son of God and Mary's son. With them we now wait—with faith, hope, rejoicing, and gratitude, for Jesus' Second Advent, when he will raise us up from death to live in his presence forever.

Books for this Advent study which begins the week of November 29, will be on the table in the narthex with a sign-up. We will not meet or zoom together each week but I will send to those participating, an email with helpful notes and answers to guide your personal study each week.

With the Love of Christ,
Denise+

Every Perfect Gift

The Gift of Light

Keep awake!" Jesus tells us, as if we could possibly let ourselves sleep right now. This year, full of plot twists has not given us a chance to rest. Staying vigilant has been standard operating procedure since the first cases of COVID-19 started making news. This was followed quickly by economic unrest and work disruptions, changes of our routines. Suddenly our living rooms were classrooms and our kitchens stocked snacks for quick meals between web conferencing. Our summer was marked by political upheaval, demonstrations for justice, natural disasters of every kind – more sleepless nights. Thank you for the words of advice, Jesus, but keeping awake has not been a problem this year.

But I don't think Jesus was worried about our sleep cycles; rather, his words were a caution to stay focused, to pay attention. Further, I believe Jesus was not asking us to merely pay attention to the news cycle, to the obvious events that shape the big moments in the world around us, but to notice the subtleties, the patterns of behavior, the nuances.

Advent is a subtle season. Its quiet refrain offers us hope and patience in equal measure. Around us it is characterized by a frenzy of shopping and planning; but deep into the darkening evenings and cooler days of the Northern Hemisphere, or fully into the languid heat and brightening skies of the south of our globe, there is a silent stirring of movement and of expectation, as the things we have planted deep, begin to take root and find the light. Those small moments, the delicate actions and thoughts of Advent, open our hearts to see that faint light as it breaks through the chaos of our culture.

These are the gifts of the season: patience, hope, anticipation, and like every perfect gift, these presents bestow on us just what we need when we need it most. In a season marked by the opposing forces of starkness and extravagance, God's generosity appeals to us in the simplicity of God's desires for us: to be patient, to live in hope, to anticipate the freedom that will unshackle us from oppression. "And what I say to you, I say to all: Keep awake!"

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION

What are the gifts that you can give that meet the needs of the world?

What patterns in yourself to you want to nurture with the coming Light?

United Thank Offering Collection of boxes All Saint's Sunday, November 7,

How to live a life of gratitude for daily blessings? It is unbelievably easy! Just breathe a quiet prayer of "Thank you, God!" as good things come to you throughout your day. To make it even more special, share that goodness with others and drop a coin or bill in your United Thank Offering Blue Box. It may become part of a grant for a van to carry someone to a clinic for medical care, or to a church in a faraway place with no transportation, or even a motorbike to make it possible for a priest or deacon to make rounds for services in a jungle or desert somewhere. Just putting your spare change in your box. Amazing things happen when we share the love of Jesus! Boxes will be on the table in the Narthex.
