Dear People of Annunciation,

The 81st General Convention of the Episcopal Church will meet June 23-28 in Louisville, Kentucky. The General Convention is the primary governing body and the ultimate authority in the Episcopal Church, with the exception of the Bible, the Book of Common Prayer, and the Constitution and Canons. It meets every three years as a bicameral legislature that includes the House of Deputies and the House of Bishops, composed of lay & clergy deputies and bishops from each diocese.

This General Convention is especially important because it marks the near-end of Presiding Bishop Michael Curry's nine year primacy and the election on June 26th of his successor, the 28th Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church. The presiding bishop is the Chief Pastor and serves as President and Chief Executive Officer, and as Chair of the Executive Council of the Episcopal Church. The House of Bishops will meet in a closed session at General Convention to elect the next presiding bishop from among the nominees. The result of the election is reported to the House of Deputies, which then votes to confirm or not to confirm the election.

I attended the 75th General Convention in 2006 as a visitor. It was during this convention that the Rt. Rev. Katharine Jefferts Schori was elected as the 26th Presiding Bishop. Delegates and visitors gathered together in the House of Deputies to hear the result of the election. When the result was announced, there was a holy moment of pause before a thunderous applause broke out (this is not allowed-by-the-way). The bishop's had elected the first woman presiding bishop of the Episcopal Church. The hair on my arms stood up as I realized I had just witnessed an historic Holy Spirit moment in the Church. The House of Deputies then overwhelmingly voted yes and history was made.

This June, the next presiding bishop will be chosen from a slate of five nominees: Nebraska Bishop J. Scott Barker, Pennsylvania Bishop Daniel G.P. Gutiérrez, Atlanta Bishop Robert Wright, Northwestern Pennsylvania Bishop Sean Rowe, who also serves as bishop provisional of the Diocese of Western New York, and Central New York Bishop DeDe Duncan-Probe, and any additional candidates nominated by petition.

Those attending Convention from the Diocese of Georgia are the Rt. Rev. Frank Logue, and delegates: Liz Williams, Molly Stevenson, Madison Cook, Cissy Bowden, the Reverends Kelly Steele, Leeann Culbreath, the Very Reverend Tom Purdy, and the Venerable Yvette Owens. Please keep them, and all the bishop's and delegates attending, in your prayers as they prepare to tackle some important issues. These issues include: how to define what the Book of Common Prayer is, the clergy disciplinary process, possible changes to health insurance for church employees, and who the Holy Spirit is calling to lead the Episcopal Church for the next 9 years.

The 28th presiding bishop is scheduled to take office on November 1, and an installation is scheduled for Nov. 2 at Washington National Cathedral, the traditional seat of the presiding bishop. When the nominating committee released its presiding bishop profile in March 2023, it identified via survey several qualities needed in "a presiding bishop for our time." Among the most important characteristics are strong leadership, a love of communicating and faithfulness. Come Holy Spirit!!

With the Love of Christ,
Denise+

New Outreach Opportunity– Promise686

Did you know there is a foster care crisis in our area, and that we now have a way to support local foster families? It's called Promise686, or Family Advocacy Ministry, a church-owned, non-profit organization dedicated to equipping church communities to care and serve vulnerable children and local foster families in their area.

How this works...families who are in need are visited by a child-serving agency such as DFCS. The agency enters any needs into CarePortal. CarePortal then shares the needs via email with the participating local churches and their teams. The local churches provide support, like providing beds or one-time needs, and then, if possible, deliver these needs and items to the families to ensure they are helped.

Do you have a heart for vulnerable children? Annunciation is now participating in this ministry to our community and several of our parishioners have already agreed to be part of a team of volunteers: Beverly Thompson, Jane Hall-Williams, Carol Rice, Ann Smith, Martha Dekle, Karen Hidalgo and Rev. Denise. If you are interested in becoming part of the team or would like more information, please speak to one of these team members. Also, when appropriate, needed items will be advertized in our publications, so please be on the look-out and help if you are able. Thank you so much!!

Thank You's.....

VESTAY/church
Thank you so much for allowing me to be ordained as a deacon in the church. It was an awesome experience to share with all of you.
Thank You AGAIN!
Rev. Ken

Dear Annunciation family, Thank you so much for helping me go to Cusella 128. Your many prayers, love, support and beautiful letters meant the world to me.
I had the most amazing time while there. We learned a great deal about the church, had many spirit-filled moments with the facilitators + participants and we worshipped together at least three times a day. My faith was strengthened and my spirit renewed.
They divided us into groups and my group was wonderful. We are already keeping in touch and keeping each other accountable with our bible study and other Christ-centered activities!

I think I gained weight as the food was delicious. It was especially nice dining with people who really cared about me.
Thank you again for recommending me to participate in this beautiful experience. I hope to be a better person and parishioner now!
Each of you is so important to me and if I can ever be of service to you please let me know. I hope to be in town more in the future -
With much love,
Margaret Sullivan
